Another Fake World Interview.
Washington, Nov. 17. Senor Dupuy DeLome says that the alleged interview published in the New York World today in which he is made to say that a war between the Uoited States and Spalo is end, is a fabrication. He has not applied to a World correspondent for days and has never made any such statement to any other person. On the contrary, he asserts that the relations of Spalo with the United States and his own relations with the home government were never more amicable than now.

HE IS A CANDIDATE.

Wanamaker Endorsed for United States Senator.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17. The Philadelphia branch of the National League of Business aften yesterday adopted a resolution extellibre the character and business experience of ex-Postmaster-General John Wanamaker and expressing the desire that he should become a candidate for United States Senator to succeed Mr. Cameron, whose term will expire March 4th.

A copy of the resolutions with a copy of the declaration of the league's principles was sent to Mr. Wanamaker with the assurance of earnest support.

Mr. Wanamaker today repiled to the lengue, giving his consent to be a caudidate for the office and heartily endorsing the principles of the league. The manufacturers' club of Philadelphia strongly urges the election of Mr. Wasaquaker.

Spanish Report of Weyler's Campaign.

Washington, Nov. 17. The Duke of Tetran cabled the Spanish minister here tonight: "Gen. Weyler continues his advance through the hille. He has taken many prisoner's left behind by retreating bands in great distress. The movement is from Mariel to Bahis Honda, thence to Cakadaria. Macco is retreating and avoiding a fight."

Minister Dupuy de Lome infers from the dispatch that Gen. Weyler does not seem to be thinking of a basty return to Hosvana, although the dispersion of Macco's band from the hills simplifies the insurrection as far as Firar Del Rio is concerned. HENRY B. CLEAVES.

By the Governor.

NICHOLAS FESSENDEN,

Jones is now telling the country how happened. It took Jones some time to realize that it really had happened, but he appears to be convinced at last.

Bryan is now engaged in working un adother spontaneous nomination for 1900. He is beginning early, but judging from the temper of the party he will

It will not be long before William Jennings Bryan will have to pay regular rates for his advertising. He has "worked" the newspapers for some time, but the post mortem addresses he is now delivering are neither interesting nor instructive as news matter. His lung capacity seems to be unlimited and will eventually succeed in dropping him out of the papers as effectually as he was dropped out of the Presidential race.

It is amusing to read in certain newspapers that the Republicans should per cent of the vote cast for Cleveland avoid an extra session of Congress for the purpose of revising the tariff because of the uncertainty it brings to business. Whether or not an extra session will be necessary is a question for the future, but Republican tariff legislation will not disturb bu-iness. On the contrary it is exactly what business demands. The election of a Republican Administration has been sufficient to give business a start for the very reason that sensible turiff legislation is confidently expected.

The campaign is over, but wheat is still booming notwithstanding the allega- See you get Carter's, tion of that astute politician, Senator Jones, who declared that the rise in Ask for Carter's, wheat was simply a scheme of the Republicans to eatch the farmer vote. It is a trifle strange that Chairman Hanna should keep the "scheme" in operation Carter's Little Liver Pills. after nearly all of the farmers in the country had voted for McKidley and those that didn't are kicking themselves because the opportunity is now gone. We suppose that Jones did the best he could, but his campaign management was ittle better than a howling farce.

Governor William J. Stone, of Miscourt, was premised the interior portfolio in Bryan's cabinet in case the "Boy Orator" had been elected, and he cannot find it in his heart to be reconciled to the loss, sure the Concord Monitor. His chegrin is not to be wondered at, but it is rather remarkable that he should have seen fit to embody his grievances in his Thanksgiving precisemation, which has just been issued, and in which he takes occasion to remark that "the occurrences of the year have not been unmixed with evil," but that on the whole Missouri has as little cason to complain as most States and that he therefore recommends a day of Thanksgiving. This churlish proclamation makes Governor Stone's measure known and it is a token for added thanksgiving that he does not get his coveted

It might save a great expenditure of lung power on the part of Bryan who is "now opering the campaign of 1900" if he would subscribe for a few Democratic 🛕 papers. The New Orleans Picayine, for instance, says .

Instance, says.

The Ficayone believes that while a few of the Democrats will remain with their new associates, the great hidy of them will at once-return to the old organization. But they must give up Bryan and Bryanism. He is a firebrand who will surely destroy everything he can dominate, and if he is to be taken up as the leader in the next campaign, then truly has the grand old party come to its end. But it will be impossible to believe that the Democrats can again follow the will-district and the best of Bryanism after having once been led by it into the dreadful slough of despond.

An early frost will nip Bryan's ambi-

An early frost will nip Bryan's ambi-tion to travel over the country as the spontaneous candidate for 1900. The people have jumped on him and now the Democrata are tired of his flow of oratory. The chances are that inside of a year he will be in name what he has been in fact for sometime, a full-fledged

The late improvements in the mail service of the large cities (in the way of mail-collecting wagons, wherein letters may be sorted) which Second Amistant. Postmaster General Neilson has introduced, are soon to be anpplemented by the addition of a new feature, according to dispatches from Washington. This Improvement is designed to be put into use where mail cars or the mail wagons referred to are already running, and will first be introduced, in Washington and New York. It consists of a special delivery to the carriers from the wagons or cars, and will be effected through large mail hoxes placed at convenient street corners. According to the proposed arrangement, the carriers will deon their regter in sertain of these large soft boards, in which the public may also drop between. The postal starts on the case or wagnes will collect this mail on

It is said that Mr. Neilson's aim is to do away with the need of having carriers go to the general post offices in large cities, as far he possible, and to arrange for sorting all of the mail en route, in order to save the time lost by sorting it in the post offices.

The New York Evening Post 88ys:

The only answer needed to Bryan's specifies of Saturday in favor of renewing the free coinage agitation is furnished by the official returns of the vote in the South, which are now coming in. We presented on Saturday the figures from Kentucky, which show that, in a total Kentucky, which show that, in a total poll more than 100,000 larger than four years ago, Bryan has only 217,797 as the fusion candidate, against 175 461 for EYE SPECIALIST AND OPTICIAN Cleveland and 23,500 for Weaver-a total of 198,961; while McKinley has 218,055 now, against only 135,441 for Harrison then, and Palmer 5,018, or 223,073 in all for sound money—giving the Republican candidate a small plurafity in the State which has gone Democratic in every previous Presidential election since the Republican party was formed. The returns from Georgia are no less significant of the democalization in Democracy caused by the surrender to Populism. Here are the figures, contrasted with those for 1892, the Democratic and Populist votes being given separately and together for 1892, and together for 1893;

129.36 42,39 172,325 17 MAIN STREET. - BANGOR. There were, besides, 2 708 votes for Palmer this year, but all told the total is only 157,230, against 220,630 for years ago. While the Republicans increased their vote about 25 per cent., the fusion candidate this year secured less than 55 more than half of the Democratic voters made in of 1892 refused to support the Populist candidate of 1896. No wonder that Southern Democratic newspapers say, in GOLD, SILVER, the expressive words of the Memphis Commercial-Appeal, that "the only reply to a proposition for a renewal of the bill ver fight is, 'Rats!'

Crand Secretary Li.

As some confusion occasionally betrays itself on the subject of Li Hing Chang's style and titles, it may be worth noting that he has the rank of embassador, but bears letters of introduction only to the sorreeigns of the several courts he is visiting, without any special mission. The Chiness, reversing our custom in this as in somany other respects, put the surmane first.

It Hung Chang, therefore, is equivalent

What the colonists wanted was to be let alone by Parliament. In 1763 the colonies had no foe except the Indians whom they were able to take care of, and remarks were begun to be made about the freedom of the colonies. George III was then on the English throne and began meddling in the affaira of the colonies. The Sugar Act was regarded as a special bardship by the colonists and men were seet to Eugland to Next came the stamp act and protests from the colonists on the ground of taxation without representation. The colcongress and passed resolutions of lovalty but insisting that taxation was a giant of those taxed and not a right of Parliament. They believed that the right to be taxed rested in themselves. The stamp act was repealed, but it was followed by the act of Parliament taxing imports and giving officers the right to search houses for smuggled goods. In 1767 there was another protest from the colonies. A circular letter regarding a union of the colonies was sent out from Massachusette and by the fall of 1760 all the colonies had formaily responded to In 1770 taxes had been repealed, except
